

The Reaper golf team competed in the Roger Keller Classic on Saturday, hosted by Sandwich. The Reapers took 7th in the 12 team field with a score of 278. The tournament used a modified Ryder Cup format with schools having three, two person teams compete. Competing for Plano were teams of Brandon Ramos and Quentin Santoria, Camden Winkler and Adrian Lazarit, and Daniel Luman and Jerome Balingit.

Plano will travel to Woodstock on Monday night to begin conference play against Woodstock and Sandwich.
